NEW DISCUSSION/LAST MEETING'S TO DO LIST & OUTCOMES:

Discussion Point	Outcome
Rainbow Room Passes vote & Sensory Room Name.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The children democratically voted for the winning design for the Rainbow Room, the 4 winning passes will be split between KS1 and KS2.</li><li>• Votes were also counted from children that had spoken to their classmates regarding the Sensory Room name change. The winning name was Reset Room.</li></ul>
KS1 Library themes/designs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The idea of a Julia Donaldson themed library was extremely popular, including a mural of several of the characters from the books.</li><li>• Clocks would be a good idea for in both KS1 and KS2 library's.</li><li>• Hopefully the library will arrive during half term, it won't be ready to use immediately.</li></ul>
On-site Safety	All children expressed their view on playground and in-school safety. Everyone said that they felt safe, there were very few accidents, play equipment was fun & being used properly. No concerns.
Smiley Stickers	Re-introduction of additional smiley to be given to children by all staff. New stickers viewed & chosen by the children's council. Mrs Tams to arrange for these to be ordered.

The next meeting will take place on Wednesday 9th February 2022.

TO DO

Be the eyes and ears of Mrs Simpson and Mr Alcock, if you see something that needs reporting please do so.
